JEN GREENY

HEAD COACH

Jen Greeny completed her sixth and most successful season at the helm of the Washington State University volleyball program in the fall of 2016. The Cougars tallied a 22-12 overall record and an 11-9 record for fifth place in the highly-competitive Pac-12 Conference after a preseason coaches' poll predicted a ninth-place finish. Seeing her success throughout the season, Greeny's fellow conference coaches voted her the 2016 Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

WSU made history in 2016 with a trio of consecutive wins over AVCA Top 10 nationally-ranked teams in 10 days: at No. 4 Washington Sept. 21, at No. 9 UCLA Sept. 23 and versus No. 9 Stanford Sept. 30.

The Cougars earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Championship tournament for the first time in seven years and won a First Round match for the first time in 14 seasons. Greeny has coached or played in seven of WSU's 11 NCAA Championship tournament appearances. The 2016 season's 22 wins is tied for fifth-most in WSU volleyball program history and under Greeny's leadership, WSU has produced the best three season win-totals in the last 14 years with 18 wins in 2013, 16 wins in 2015 and 22 wins in 2016. Greeny's WSU teams have posted a 62-11 nonconference record during her six years as head coach. The Cougars compete in the country's strongest volleyball conference, the Pac-12, where for the last 17 seasons the conference has had six or more teams advance to the NCAA Championship tournament.

Senior outside hitter Kyra Holt, an AVCA/Volleyball.com/PrepVolleyball.com All-America honorable mention, All-Pacific North Region and two-time All-Pac-12 selection, was a versatile all-around player leading the team on and off the court. Holt, the fifth player in WSU history to reach 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career, claimed school records in points (2,051) and attack attempts (5,074), and is in WSU's career top 10 lists in kills (1,777

- 2nd), kills per set (3.74 - 5th), aces (123 - 5th), and digs (1,172 - 7th). During the 2016 season Holt was the ESPNW National Player of the Week for Sept. 19-25, as well as Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week and earned a trio of nonconference all-tournament honors.

The Cougars led the country in total blocks in 2016 and was third-best nationally for blocks per set (3.23 bps) with sophomore middle blockers Taylor Mims and Claire Martin producing outstanding statistics. Mims was third-best nationally in total blocks (191) and eighth-best in blocks per set (1.49 bps) while Martin was 24th-best in total blocks (156) and 16th-best in blocks per set (1.41bps). Mims and WSU junior outside hitter Schoenlein were named to the 2016 All-Pac-12 honorable mention team and Mims was a PrepVolleyball.com All-America honorable mention selection.

WSU had the second-most current players in the NCAA to play on National Teams in the summer of 2017: Mims played on the U.S. Collegiate National Team - Europe, McKenna Woodford played for USCNT-Thailand, Schoenlein played for USCNT-Minneapolis, and Jocelyn Urias played on the Mexican National Team at the FIVB Grand Prix. Mims was a leader of the CNT-Europe's Gold Medal finish at the 13th Annual Global Challenge Tournament (Croatia) and was named to the All-Tournament team. This was the second consecutive year that Cougars were on the CNT-Europe Gold Medal team: in 2016 Woodford and Schoenlein, as well as Coach Greeny, came home with gold from the Global Challenge.

Greeny and her staff have tirelessly worked to return the Cougars volleyball program back to the national prominence it received when Greeny was a player and an assistant coach. To that end, the Cougars ranked No. 17 in recruiting class rankings from 2013-15 according to PrepVolleyball.com, which includes two classes ranked among the Top 21: No. 14 in 2013, and No. 21 in 2015, with the 2014 class garnering honorable mention accolades. Among the WSU recruits are seven PrepVolleyball.com Top 100 players and two Gatorade State Players of the Year. Greeny credits her husband and lead recruiter, assistant coach Burdette Greeny, with achieving these fine recruiting classes.

Greeny became the 12th coach in the history of the Cougars volleyball program in March 2011. She has compiled a six-year record of 91-104 at WSU and has a 10-year career record of 203-128. As Jennifer Stinson, Greeny played and coached at WSU during the program's most successful years on the Palouse.

Under Greeny's mentoring, Holt became the fifth All-America player in WSU history following Meagan Ganzer's 2011 selection which was the first since 1996. Jen and Burdette Greeny have coached nine All-Americans and several players who have had successful professional careers including Holt (Puerto Rico), Ganzer (Puerto Rico, Romania, and Germany), Camryn Irwin (Austria and Sweden), Chelsie Bettinson (Sweden) and Anile Clemente, a three-time All-American at Lewis-Clark State (Denmark).

Greeny has also changed the academic culture of the program with 10 semesters of a team grade point average of 3.0 or better.

As the head volleyball coach at Lewis-Clark State College (Lewiston, Idaho) from 2007-10, Greeny accumulating an impressive 112-24 record (.824) while turning the Warriors' program into one of the premier NAIA teams. She took the reins of a struggling program and led it to success, winning four consecutive Frontier Conference regular season titles and four consecutive berths to the NAIA National Tournament. The Warriors finished in the top 13 in the nation each year and ended the 2010 season at 31-3 (.912), the best mark in the history of the program. Greeny was a four-time Frontier Conference Coach of the Year and the American Volleyball Coaches' Association's Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

Jennifer Stinson was a stellar multi-sport athlete at Davenport (Wash.) High School. At WSU she became the seventh player in school history with 1,000 career kills. A three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection, she trained with the 1997 U.S. National volleyball team. She also excelled in the classroom: she was WSU's Athlete of the Year in 1998-99, a CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-America first-team (1998) and second-team (1997) selection, and a Pac-10 Volleyball All-Academic selection three times. She received her bachelor's degree in education from WSU in 1999.

Greeny spent four and one-half years on WSU Head Coach Cindy Fredrick's volleyball coaching staff. At the time of her departure, Greeny had been involved in seven of the 11 seasons Cougar volleyball qualified for postseason action, three as a player, three as an assistant coach and once as head coach. During her playing career, WSU was ranked as high as fifth in the country and made the Elite Eight of the NCAA Championship Tournament. Greeny was instrumental in WSU's second and only other appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, in 2002, this time as an assistant coach.

Greeny and her husband, Burdette Greeny, a former standout pitcher at WSU and an associate head volleyball coach at WSU, have two daughters, Lauren and Leah. The Greenys were honored with a City of Pullman Chamber of Commerce Walk of Fame plaque in 2015; the 25th plaque in the Famous Sports Figures category which honors those who have a positive impact beyond Pullman High School or Washington State University. She is a member of the Pullman Regional Hospital Foundation.

BURDETTE GREENY

Associate Head Coach

Burdette Greeny joined the Cougar volleyball program in March 2011 as an assistant coach and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in February 2017 after a 2016 season filled with milestones. WSU ended the season ranked No. 24 in the Final AVCA Coaches Poll with a 22-12 overall record: the most wins in a season since 2002, and tied for fifth-best all-time wins in Cougars history. WSU's 11-9 Pac-12 record, tied for fifth place in the highly competitive conference, was the most conference wins for the Cougars since 2002. The Cougars received an at-large bid to the 2016 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship Tournament for the 11th time in school history and advanced to the second round for the first time since 2002.

Greeny's recruiting prowess is evident in the PrepVolleyball.com's national rankings. WSU is one of only 15 programs in the nation to have two Top 25 and one Honorable Mention recruiting class between 2013 and 2015. The 2013 and 2015 recruiting classes are two of the highest-ranked recruiting classes ever in any sport at WSU. Among Greeny's WSU recruits are six PrepVolleyball.com Top 100 players and two Gatorade State Players of the Year.

"Burdette has emerged as one of the best recruiting coordinators in the country and it definitely shows with the amount of talent and character in his recruiting classes," Cougar Head Coach Jen Greeny said. "The recruits have said Burdette is easy and fun to talk to, is an amazing communicator, and is extremely passionate about Washington State and Pullman. Burdette cares not only about a player's skills in the recruiting process but also about each individual and if they will fit in with our team core values."

The first high school recruit signed by Greeny was libero Kate Sommer who broke WSU's career digs record with 1,954 digs. Among the 2013 recruiting class, which was the first real recruiting class for the Greenys, ranked 14th-best nationally, was Kyra Holt who became an AVCA/Volleymag.com/PrepVolleyball.com All-America honorable mention, All-Pacific North Region and two-time All-Pac-12 selection. Holt could arguably be described as quite possibly the best all-around player ever at WSU, as she finished her career No. 1 in points, No. 2 in kills, No. 3 in kills per set, No. 5 in aces, and No. 7 in digs. Holt also found success in as a professional player in Puerto Rico in 2017 and is one of six players that Greeny has coached who has gone on to play professionally. Middle blockers Taylor Mims and Claire Martin were signees in the 21st-best national recruiting class in 2015. In 2016 as sophomores, Mims and Martin finished in the Top 25 nationally in blocks per set and total blocks. Greeny was integral to the recruitment and development of these front row players who became one of the elite blocking units in the nation. WSU was number two in team total blocks behind national champion Stanford and third-best nationally in team blocks per set, a significant factor to WSU finishing fourth among all Power 5 conference schools and 26th overall in opponent hitting percentage, behind only AVCA Top 25 teams No. 4 Nebraska, No. 11 Kansas, and No. 12 North Carolina.

Casey Schoenlein and McKenna Woodford became the first Cougar volleyball players be named to a US National Team since 1997. Their CNT-Europe squad, with Coach Jen Greeny on the coaching staff, won the gold medal at the 2016 Global Challenge Tournament in Croatia (the first for a US National Team in the twelve years of the tournament). In 2017 CNT-Europe repeated as champions at the Global Challenge and Mims was an all-tournament selection. Woodford played on the 2017 CNT-Thailand team and Schoenlein was on the CNT-Minneapolis squad. Jocelyn Urias was on the Mexican National Team at the FIVB Grand Prix bringing WSU's total to four 2017 players on national teams, second only to the University of Texas.

Burdette Greeny assisted his wife Jen at Lewis-Clark State College from 2007-10. He was an assistant coach for three seasons and one of 20 assistant coaches nominated for the 2009 NAIA National Assistant Coach of the Year Award. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach at LCSC in 2010. Greeny's recruiting resume at LCSC included three Junior College First Team All-Americans, one Junior College Second Team All-American, one Gatorade State Player of the Year, two state players of the year, and 12 first team all-state selections. In four years, 37 LCSC players were named to the conference all-academic teams and seven players were selected as NAIA Volleyball National Scholar-Athletes.

Greeny was an all-league selection in both basketball and baseball at Port Angeles (Wash.) High School. He was named one of the top ten pitchers in the state by Tacoma News Tribune (1993), drafted by the New York Mets but instead played basketball and baseball at Tacoma Community College (1993-95). He earned second-team All-West Region honors both years as a third baseman and set a school record for striking out 17 batters in a game. He pitched for WSU in 1997, winning the team's award for strength and conditioning. He signed as a free agent with the Milwaukee Brewers before the 1998 draft and was with the organization for two seasons.

Greeny earned a degree in humanities with an emphasis in English from WSU in 1999. From 2000 through 2007 he was the head coach in the Pullman American Legion Baseball organization where his teams won two regular season titles, one district title, and made the first appearance by a Pullman team at the state tournament since 1968 and tallied the first state tourney win in the program's 60-year history. Of his American Legion players, 88 percent went on to play college baseball. Greeny spearheaded the development of the Palouse Summer Series which brings to Pullman some of the best amateur select and American Legion teams in the state and Canada. He was the recipient of the 2005 Pullman Chamber of Commerce STAR (Supporting Tourism and Recreation) Award.

Burdette and Jen Greeny were honored in 2015 with a City of Pullman Chamber of Commerce Walk of Fame plaque. They have two daughters, Lauren and Leah.

SHANNON HUNT

Assistant Coach

Shannon Wyckoff Hunt joined the Cougar volleyball program as a volunteer coach in August 2011 and was promoted to assistant coach in the spring of 2013. She was instrumental in rebuilding the WSU program back into an NCAA Tournament team as it was when she was a student-athlete.

The 2016 season was filled with milestones. WSU ended the season ranked No. 24 in the Final AVCA Coaches Poll with a 22-12 overall record: the most wins in a season since 2002, and tied for fifth-best all-time wins in Cougars history. WSU's 11-9 Pac-12 record, tied for fifth place in the highly competitive conference, was the most conference wins for the Cougars since 2002. The Cougars received an at-large bid to the 2016 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship Tournament for the 11th time in school history and defeated Marquette in the First Round before falling to No. 3 Wisconsin on the Badgers home court in Madison, Wis., in the Second Round.

Hunt's ability to hone the skills and techniques of the Cougar defense directly contributed to team success. Under Hunt's guidance, libero Kate Sommer, the first WSU recruit by the Greeny staff, claimed the school digs record with 1,954 digs in her four-year career. Sommer's season totals of 521 digs (2014), 495 digs (2013), 479 digs (2015), and 459 digs (2012) rank fourth, sixth, seventh and ninth-best in WSU's single season school records. Stepping into the libero spot in the 2016 season was freshman Alexis Dirige, whose 3.83 digs per set was seventh-best in Pac-12 and she had double-digit digs in 26 of WSU's 34 matches tallying 486 digs for the season, seventh-best in WSU all-time single season records.

In 2016, the Cougars kept opponents hitting an average of .168 which was the lowest percentage in the Pac-12 Conference, 26th-best in the NCAA in 2016, and fourth-best in WSU all-time, and the best in the past 18 seasons: back to when Hunt was hold Cougar opponents to a .156 hitting percentage in 1997.

Hunt was an outstanding student and athlete at WSU from 1994 through 1997, and a teammate of Greeny. During Hunt's collegiate career the Cougars volleyball team played all four years in the NCAA Championship Tournament and advanced to the Elite Eight once and to the Sweet Sixteen once.

She was the first Washington State player to reach 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career. Her 1,254 career digs was the WSU all-time list leader from 1997 until 2008 and is currently second-best all-time. Hunt tallied 1,051 career kills which was fifth-best at the time and now ranks ninth-highest in school history. In addition, her career 83 service aces total is ranked 11th-best at WSU.

Hunt competed at Prairie High near Vancouver, Wash., and was the state volleyball Player of the Year three consecutive years - twice in AA and once in AAA. She was the first four-time all-league selection in the history of the Greater St. Helens League. The Falcons' volleyball team finished fourth three times in the state championships. Her senior year Prairie also won the state AAA Academic title. Hunt was a starter on the Nike Northwest Juniors Club team all five years she played.

At Washington State, Hunt started on the left side as a freshman and missed only six matches in the starting lineup, due to injury, during her four-year career. As a sophomore Hunt's 376 digs led team and 3.72 digs per game was third-best in conference. She set a school record with 32 digs in a match at South Florida in 1995. She was named to two all-tournament teams as a junior and was an important cog in the Cougars' advancing to the NCAA Championships Elite Eight. As a senior, Hunt continued amassing kills and digs as an outside hitter, earned two more all-tournament honors, and helped lead the Cougars to the Sweet Sixteen at the NCAA Championships.

Hunt was recognized for her academic excellence with Pac-10 All-Academic second team and honorable mention selections as well as being named to the GTE/CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-America Teams three times.

After graduating from WSU in the spring of 1998 with a degree in education, Hunt taught at the elementary level in the Vancouver, Wash., and coached volleyball at Heritage High and Hockinson High Schools.

Prior to returning to WSU Hunt taught and coached in the Vancouver, Wash., area for a dozen years. She was the head volleyball coach at Prairie High School in Brush Prairie, Wash., for the 2000 through 2003 seasons where she tallied a state championship tournament berth and had three players advance from prep to collegiate volleyball careers. She was inducted into the Prairie High School Hall of Fame in January of 2015.

Hunt moved to the newly constructed Hockinson High School, also in Brush Prairie, Wash., where she was the head volleyball coach from 2004 through 2010. At Hockinson, Hunt led two Hawks' volleyball teams to state championship tournaments and had five players play collegiately after their prep volleyball careers.

Hunt and her husband Joe have two sons, Grayson and Austin.

Kaysie Shebeneck

Operations Coordinator

Kaysie Shebeneck joined the Washington State volleyball program in May 2017. As operations coordinator, Shebeneck arranges all the team travel and meals, administers the video analysis and scouting service, and coordinates the student-athletes in promotional and community activities. Her duties also include managing the Little Spikers youth clinics and the summer camps.

A native of Racine, Wis., Shebeneck was a two-time Wisconsin Gatorade Prep Volleyball Player of the Year. She led the Burlington High School Demons volleyball team to back-to-back state championship titles (2012 and 2012) after a pair of top five placings. She was a two-time all-state tournament selection, tournament MVP and a two-time all-state first team selection by the Wisconsin Volleyball Coaches Association. Shebeneck was the 2012 All-Area Co-Player of the Year. She was selected to PrepVolleyball.com's top players by class all four years, an All-American in 2011 and 2012, was named 2011 PrepVolleyball.com's National Junior of the Year finalist as well as a finalist for the 2012 Andi Collins Award which recognizes the best senior setter in the nation. She was a Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Association scholar-athlete 2013 finalist.

Shebeneck played for the Milwaukee Sting Club team for eight years, leading her team to four top-five finishes at the national championships. She earned AAU All-American honors after her club was runners-up in the 17 Open Division at the 2012 AAU Girls Junior National Volleyball Championship.

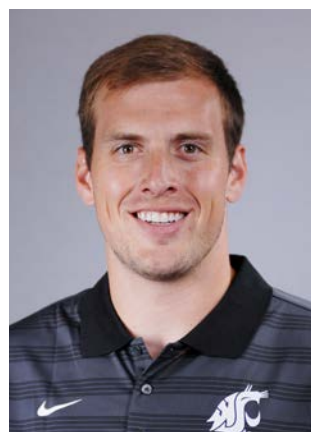

Shebeneck was a setter for the Texas A&M volleyball team where the Aggies tallied four NCAA Championship Tournament bids and won the Southeastern Conference (SEC) title once. She earned SEC Academic Honor Roll honors four times and was the team's Most Inspirational Player in 2014. She graduated in May 2017 with Bachelor of Arts degrees in Spanish and International Studies with a minor in Communication. BOHLER GYM

The Best Volleyball-Only Facility in the Pac-12

Home to Cougar Athletics since 1928.

One of the only facilities solely dedicated to volleyball in the nation.

Dominating home court advantage as fans are virtually on top of the action.

Cougars enjoy tremendous fan support from the University and the Pullman communities.

"Volleyball specific gyms are the future and Bohler Gym is a testament to the commitment Washington State University has made to Women's Volleyball and to the growth of our sport."

Volleyball Magazine, May 2003

The Cougars' home court is called Marcia Saneholtz Court at Bohler Gym in honor of the 28-year administrative veteran of Cougar Athletics who retired Oct. 1, 2007. Saneholtz was the WSU Senior Associate Athletics Director/SWA and was a long-time proponent of gender equity and a champion for all sports at WSU as well as in the Pac-10 and the nation. She was the NACWAA president (1992-93), on the board of directors (1987-94), and named 1997 Administrator of the Year. She also received the NAGWS Pathfinder Award in 2001 and WSU Woman of Distinction in 2003. Saneholtz will be added to the Inland Empire Scroll of Honor in the fall of 2009.
